Mastering Money Basics

Official Rules & Guidelines

Eligibility

The contest is open to students in grades K-5 in Nebraska. Students must develop their stories under teacher supervision to ensure rules are adhered to. Students may work in teams of up to four. The Project Coordinator and/or Teachers should only provide constructive criticism and general guidance. The Project Coordinator assures that the entry follows the rules below.

Composition:

We will be accepting a minimum of 8 pages, 4 pages of text and 4 pages of illustration. Title page, while not required, must be done separately from the story and is not counted in minimum pages.

Copyright:

From the time of submission, entries become the property of ACCESS and will not be returned. Each entry must be accompanied by an entry form. The entry form may be photocopied. The signatures of the teacher and parent of the student must be on the entry form. Entrants will receive a letter of acknowledgment and a certificate of participation.

Entries must be postmarked by February 28.

Winners will be selected on April 1.

Illustrations:

- Use one side of an 8.5" x 11" page only. Do not combine text and illustration on the same page.
- Do not use licensed characters, trademarked or brand name items (Superman, Doritos, or Dairy Queen). The right to use these is protected by law.
- You may create illustrations using paints, inks, crayons, original computer graphics, cut paper, and print processes like linoleum block.
- Use bright vibrant colors and bold lines to create reproducible illustrations. Pencil drawings are not recommended.
- Artwork/illustrations may be computer generated only if it's the students' original creation.
- Do not use clipart or items from a publication (like newspaper or magazine).

Format for Submissions:

- Use one side of an 8.5" x 11" page only.
- All submissions must contain illustrated artwork and be received in its original format.
- Three dimensional artwork (pop ups, flaps, movable parts, etc.) will not be accepted.
- Artwork may be computer generated only if it is the student's original creation.
- Keep text separated from illustrations.
- Text may be typed, computer generated, or handwritten.
- Both text and artwork must be the sole creation of the students.
- Include the completed Entry Form.
- Each entry must be submitted separately.
- Remember that the entry should be the students' work only. Your role is to offer guidance and provide instruction and examples of story elements, such as plot, theme, character development, and setting.
